

GOSPEL TODAY TRAVEL

TERMS AND CONDITIONS AGREEMENT

Effective Date: September 2026

These Terms and Conditions (“Terms” or “Agreement”) govern participation in tours, pilgrimages, cruises, conferences, retreats, excursions, group travel programs, and other travel experiences (“Trip” or “Tour”) offered, arranged, coordinated, marketed, or facilitated by Gospel Today Travel (“Gospel Today Travel,” “GTT,” “we,” “our,” or “us”).

These Terms apply to all Gospel Today Travel programs, including domestic and international travel. Individual Trips may have additional terms, payment schedules, cancellation policies, or requirements. Where Trip-specific written terms differ from these general Terms, the Trip-specific terms shall control.

By registering for a Trip, submitting a deposit or payment, electronically accepting these Terms, or otherwise confirming participation, the traveler (“Traveler,” “Participant,” “you,” or “your”) acknowledges that the Traveler has read, understands, and agrees to these Terms and Conditions.

1. RESERVATIONS AND REGISTRATION

A reservation is not considered confirmed until Gospel Today Travel has received all required registration information and the applicable deposit or payment.

Reservations are subject to availability and may be accepted or declined at Gospel Today Travel’s discretion, consistent with applicable law.

Each Traveler is responsible for providing complete and accurate information, including the Traveler’s legal name exactly as it appears on the government-issued identification or passport that will be used for travel.

Errors, omissions, or name changes may result in fees imposed by airlines, hotels, tour operators, government agencies, or other suppliers. Such costs are the Traveler’s responsibility.

2. PRICING

Trip prices are based upon the itinerary, accommodations, transportation, services, exchange rates, taxes, fees, supplier pricing, and other conditions known at the time the Trip is offered.

Unless specifically stated otherwise, advertised prices are per person and may be based upon double occupancy.

Gospel Today Travel reserves the right, to the extent permitted by law and applicable supplier contracts, to adjust pricing when necessary because of circumstances beyond its reasonable control, including changes in government taxes or fees, fuel surcharges, currency fluctuations, transportation costs, supplier increases, or changes requested by the Traveler.

Any material price adjustment will be communicated to affected Travelers.

3. WHAT IS INCLUDED

Only items specifically identified as included in the applicable Trip itinerary, brochure, registration materials, invoice, or written offer are included in the Trip price.

Depending upon the particular Trip, inclusions may include accommodations, specified meals, sightseeing, ground transportation, admission fees, guides, tour leaders, meetings, worship experiences, events, or other services.

Travelers should carefully review the specific inclusions for their Trip before registering.

4. WHAT IS NOT INCLUDED

Unless expressly identified in writing as included, the Trip price does not include items such as:

Airfare; passport and visa expenses; travel insurance; baggage or airline fees; vaccinations or medical expenses; meals not specified in the itinerary; alcoholic beverages; personal purchases; laundry; telephone or internet charges; optional excursions; gratuities; transportation outside the scheduled itinerary; excess baggage; transportation to or from the Traveler's home airport; or expenses resulting from delays, cancellations, illness, emergencies, or itinerary changes.

Each Traveler is responsible for reviewing the specific exclusions applicable to the Trip.

5. DEPOSITS AND PAYMENTS

Each Trip may have its own deposit amount, installment schedule, final payment deadline, and accepted payment methods.

All payments must be received by the stated deadlines.

Failure to make a required payment by its deadline may result in cancellation of the reservation and application of the applicable cancellation provisions.

Gospel Today Travel is not responsible for reminders that are not received because of incorrect email addresses, telephone numbers, spam filtering, postal delays, or other communication issues.

6. CANCELLATIONS BY THE TRAVELER

All cancellations must be submitted to Gospel Today Travel in writing.

The effective cancellation date will be the date on which Gospel Today Travel receives the written cancellation.

Deposits, installment payments, and final payments may be nonrefundable or subject to cancellation charges according to the cancellation schedule established for the applicable Trip.

Because Gospel Today Travel may make advance, nonrefundable commitments to hotels, transportation providers, tour operators, venues, guides, airlines, and other suppliers, Gospel Today Travel cannot guarantee refunds for amounts that have become nonrefundable or have already been committed to suppliers.

Failure to participate in any portion of a Trip, including late arrival, early departure, missed transportation, missed excursions, or unused accommodations, does not automatically entitle the Traveler to a refund.

Cancellation and Refund Schedule

This cancellation schedule provides travelers with reasonable refund opportunities while protecting Gospel Today Travel's financial commitments to hotels, transportation providers, tour operators, and other travel partners.

Cancellation Date	Refund %
Jan 15 – Mar 31 2027	80%
Apr 1 – May 1, 2027	70%
Jun 1 – Jul 31, 2027	60%
Aug 1 – Aug 31, 2027	50%
Sep 1 – Sep 30, 2027	25%
Oct 1 – after	0%

Important Payment and Cancellation Policies

1. Registration Deposit: A $200 nonrefundable registration deposit is required to secure each traveler's reservation.
2. Refund Calculation: Refund percentages apply to the total amount paid toward the tour, excluding the $200 nonrefundable deposit and any separately identified nonrefundable third-party charges.
3. Final Payment Deadline: All outstanding tour balances must be paid in full by October 15, 2027. Failure to complete payment by this date may result in cancellation of the reservation and forfeiture of payments made.
4. Cancellation Requests: All cancellations must be submitted in writing to Gospel Today Travel

(gospeltodaytravel@gmail.com). The effective cancellation date is the date the written request is received.

5. Refund Processing: Approved refunds will be processed within 30 business days, subject to the applicable payment provider's processing time.

6. No Refunds After October 1: Cancellations received on or after October 1, 2027, including no-shows and voluntary early departures, are not eligible for refunds.

7. Travel Insurance: All travelers are strongly encouraged to purchase comprehensive travel insurance, including trip cancellation, trip interruption, and emergency medical coverage.

7. TRAVELER SUBSTITUTIONS AND NAME CHANGES

Gospel Today Travel may, when permitted by the applicable suppliers, allow a Traveler to transfer a reservation to another eligible person.

All substitutions require prior written approval.

The original Traveler and/or substitute Traveler shall be responsible for any name-change fees, fare differences, supplier charges, administrative fees, or other costs associated with the substitution.

Certain airline tickets, visas, permits, hotel arrangements, or supplier reservations may not be transferable.

8. CANCELLATION OR MODIFICATION BY GOSPEL TODAY TRAVEL

Gospel Today Travel reserves the right to cancel, postpone, reschedule, modify, combine, or discontinue a Trip when reasonably necessary because of insufficient participation, supplier changes, safety concerns, governmental actions, events beyond Gospel Today Travel's reasonable control, or other circumstances affecting the feasibility or operation of the Trip.

If Gospel Today Travel cancels a Trip, its obligations regarding refunds or credits will be determined by the amounts actually recoverable from suppliers, applicable law, Trip-specific terms, and any other contractual obligations.

Gospel Today Travel is not responsible for independently purchased airfare, hotels, transportation, insurance, or other arrangements purchased outside the Gospel Today Travel package unless expressly agreed to in writing.

Travelers are strongly encouraged to purchase appropriate travel insurance.

9. ITINERARY CHANGES

Published itineraries represent the planned schedule at the time of publication but are not guarantees that every site, attraction, speaker, worship leader, activity, hotel, restaurant, transportation provider, or other component will remain unchanged.

Travel inherently involves circumstances that may require adjustments.

Gospel Today Travel and its suppliers may make reasonable changes to itineraries, accommodations, transportation, guides, activities, schedules, or other Trip components when necessary for operational, logistical, security, governmental, weather-related, religious, or safety reasons.

Changes to the sequence of itinerary activities, standing alone, do not constitute cancellation of the Trip.

10. PASSPORTS, VISAS AND ENTRY REQUIREMENTS

Each Traveler is solely responsible for obtaining and maintaining all documentation required for the Trip, including passports, visas, permits, entry authorizations, identification, and other governmental documentation.

For international travel, the Traveler is responsible for ensuring that the passport satisfies the destination country's validity requirements.

Entry requirements may change before departure.

Travelers should independently verify current requirements with the appropriate governmental authorities for every country they will enter or transit.

Gospel Today Travel shall not be responsible for losses, missed travel, denial of boarding, denial of entry, deportation, or additional expenses resulting from a Traveler's failure to possess proper documentation.

11. TRAVEL INSURANCE

Travel insurance is strongly recommended for every Traveler.

Depending upon the policy selected, travel insurance may provide coverage for circumstances such as Trip cancellation, Trip interruption, medical emergencies, emergency evacuation, baggage loss or delay, travel delays, or other covered events.

Travelers are responsible for reviewing policy terms, exclusions, coverage limits, pre-existing-condition provisions, deadlines, and eligibility requirements directly with the insurance provider.

Unless expressly stated otherwise, Gospel Today Travel does not act as the insurer and does not determine whether a claim is covered.

The decision to purchase or decline insurance belongs to the Traveler, who accepts the financial risks associated with that decision.

12. HEALTH, MEDICAL NEEDS AND FITNESS TO TRAVEL

Travelers are responsible for determining whether they are physically and medically able to participate safely in the selected Trip.

Certain Trips may involve extensive walking, stairs, uneven terrain, prolonged standing, heat, high elevations, boat travel, long motorcoach rides, religious or archaeological sites, or locations with limited accessibility.

Travelers with medical, mobility, dietary, or accessibility needs should notify Gospel Today Travel as early as reasonably possible so that available accommodations can be explored.

Gospel Today Travel cannot guarantee that every destination, hotel, vehicle, attraction, historic site, religious site, or foreign facility will meet United States accessibility standards.

Travelers are responsible for bringing necessary medications and medical supplies and for obtaining appropriate medical advice before travel.

13. PUBLIC HEALTH AND GOVERNMENT REQUIREMENTS

Travelers are responsible for complying with health, vaccination, testing, quarantine, screening, documentation, or other requirements imposed by governments, airlines, cruise lines, hotels, venues, tour operators, or other suppliers.

Costs associated with compliance are the Traveler's responsibility unless expressly included in the Trip package.

14. MINORS

Travelers under the age of 18 must travel with a parent, legal guardian, or other responsible adult authorized by the parent or legal guardian, unless Gospel Today Travel has expressly approved another arrangement in writing.

Parents and guardians are responsible for obtaining all documentation required for minors, including passports, visas, consent forms, and custody-related documentation where applicable.

15. ACCOMMODATIONS AND ROOMMATES

Hotel classifications and standards vary by country and destination.

Double-occupancy pricing assumes two eligible Travelers sharing a room unless otherwise stated.

Travelers requesting single occupancy may be required to pay a single supplement.

If Gospel Today Travel assists with roommate matching, such assistance is provided as a convenience only. Gospel Today Travel does not guarantee compatibility between roommates and is not responsible for disputes, personality conflicts, sleeping habits, personal conduct, or other roommate issues.

If a roommate arrangement changes and a Traveler becomes responsible for single occupancy, the applicable single supplement may become due.

16. AIR TRANSPORTATION

When airfare is included or arranged through Gospel Today Travel, airline schedules, routing, seating, aircraft, baggage policies, and other airline services remain subject to the applicable carrier's terms and operational control.

When airfare is not included, Travelers are responsible for arranging flights that meet Gospel Today Travel's published arrival and departure requirements.

Gospel Today Travel is not responsible for missed Trip components resulting from independently booked flights that arrive late, are canceled, or otherwise fail to meet the Trip schedule.

17. BAGGAGE AND PERSONAL PROPERTY

Travelers are responsible for their luggage, passports, identification, money, electronics, medications, jewelry, and other personal property.

Airlines, motorcoach companies, hotels, cruise lines, and other suppliers may impose baggage limitations and charges.

Gospel Today Travel is not responsible for lost, stolen, delayed, or damaged baggage or personal property except to the extent liability is imposed by applicable law.

Travel insurance that includes baggage protection is recommended.

18. GROUP LEADERS, HOSTS AND TRAVEL AMBASSADORS

Certain Gospel Today Travel programs may include pastors, ministry leaders, recording artists, speakers, worship leaders, hosts, group coordinators, or other designated leaders.

Participation by a particular leader, artist, speaker, minister, host, or personality is subject to change because of illness, emergencies, scheduling conflicts, travel disruptions, governmental restrictions, or other circumstances.

Unless specifically stated in writing as a material condition of the Trip, the inability of a particular leader, host, artist, or speaker to participate does not constitute cancellation of the Trip.

Any complimentary travel, incentives, commissions, or benefits provided to authorized group leaders are governed by separate written agreements and do not alter these Traveler Terms and Conditions.

19. TRAVELER CONDUCT

Gospel Today Travel seeks to provide a respectful, safe, enjoyable, and community-centered travel experience.

Travelers are expected to treat fellow Travelers, Trip leaders, employees, suppliers, local residents, religious communities, and others with respect.

Threatening behavior, harassment, violence, unlawful activity, serious disruption, repeated interference with group activities, or conduct that creates a substantial safety risk may result in removal from the Trip.

A Traveler removed for serious misconduct may be responsible for the costs of alternate transportation, accommodations, or return travel and may not be entitled to refunds for unused Trip components, subject to applicable law.

20. FAITH-BASED PROGRAMMING

Certain Gospel Today Travel experiences may include Christian worship, prayer, Bible study, ministry, religious instruction, visits to sacred sites, gospel music, and other faith-centered activities.

Participation in Gospel Today Travel therefore may include exposure to explicitly Christian programming.

Travelers are expected to respect religious sites, local customs, houses of worship, cultural practices, dress requirements, and instructions from guides or local authorities.

Unless specifically identified as mandatory for logistical or safety reasons, participation in devotional, worship, or ministry activities is voluntary.

21. PHOTOGRAPHY, VIDEO AND MEDIA

Gospel Today Travel may photograph or record group activities for legitimate promotional, documentary, archival, educational, or social-media purposes.

Travelers who have privacy concerns regarding photography or recording should notify Gospel Today Travel in writing before departure so that reasonable efforts can be made to honor those concerns.

Gospel Today Travel cannot control photography or recording by other Travelers, members of the public, media organizations, attractions, venues, or third parties.

22. THIRD-PARTY TRAVEL SUPPLIERS

Gospel Today Travel may arrange services provided by independent third parties, including airlines, hotels, cruise lines, transportation companies, destination management companies, tour operators, restaurants, guides, attractions, venues, insurance companies, and other suppliers.

These suppliers are independent entities and are not employees of Gospel Today Travel unless expressly stated otherwise.

Each supplier may maintain its own terms, conditions, limitations, and policies.

To the extent permitted by applicable law, Gospel Today Travel is not responsible for the negligent or wrongful acts, omissions, defaults, insolvency, or failures of independent suppliers over whom Gospel Today Travel does not exercise direct control.

Nothing in these Terms is intended to waive any right or remedy that cannot lawfully be waived.

23. ASSUMPTION OF TRAVEL RISKS

Travel involves inherent and sometimes unpredictable risks.

Depending upon the destination, these risks may include transportation accidents; illness or injury; infectious disease; weather; natural disasters; political or civil disturbances; terrorism or security incidents; crime; strikes; border closures; governmental restrictions; delays; changes in local conditions; uneven terrain; unfamiliar food or water; and limitations in medical services.

By choosing to participate, the Traveler acknowledges the ordinary and reasonably foreseeable risks associated with travel and accepts responsibility for making an informed decision regarding participation.

Travelers should review current governmental travel information and obtain appropriate professional advice when necessary.

24. FORCE MAJEURE AND EVENTS BEYOND REASONABLE CONTROL

Gospel Today Travel shall not be liable for failure, delay, cancellation, interruption, or modification resulting from circumstances beyond its reasonable control, subject to applicable law.

Such circumstances may include severe weather; natural disasters; fire; flood; earthquake; epidemic or pandemic; war; terrorism; civil unrest; labor disputes; governmental actions; border closures; travel restrictions; transportation interruptions; supplier failures; utility outages; or other extraordinary events.

When such an event occurs, Gospel Today Travel will make reasonable efforts to manage the Trip and communicate available options. Refunds, credits, substitutions, or rescheduling will depend upon the circumstances, supplier policies, amounts recoverable, Trip-specific terms, and applicable law.

25. EMERGENCIES AND ADDITIONAL EXPENSES

Unless caused by Gospel Today Travel in circumstances creating legal liability, expenses arising from personal emergencies, illness, hospitalization, evacuation, quarantine, missed transportation, weather, governmental action, or other unexpected circumstances are the Traveler's responsibility.

Gospel Today Travel may assist Travelers in obtaining emergency services when reasonably possible, but cannot guarantee the availability, quality, or cost of those services.

26. LIMITATION OF LIABILITY

To the fullest extent permitted by applicable law, Gospel Today Travel shall not be liable for indirect, incidental, special, punitive, or consequential damages arising from circumstances outside its reasonable control or from acts or omissions of independent third-party suppliers.

Nothing in this Agreement excludes or limits liability that cannot legally be excluded or limited.

27. TRAVELER RESPONSIBILITY

Each Traveler is responsible for:

Reviewing all Trip information and these Terms; making payments by required deadlines; obtaining required travel documents; evaluating personal fitness to travel; arriving at designated locations on time; complying with laws and supplier requirements; protecting personal property; purchasing desired insurance; providing accurate contact information; and promptly notifying Gospel Today Travel of circumstances that may materially affect participation.

28. COMMUNICATIONS

Gospel Today Travel may communicate with Travelers through email, telephone, text messaging, registration platforms, websites, or other reasonable methods.

Travelers are responsible for providing accurate contact information and monitoring communications related to the Trip.

Important notices sent to the contact information provided by the Traveler will be considered properly transmitted, subject to applicable law.

29. PRIVACY AND PERSONAL INFORMATION

Gospel Today Travel may collect personal information reasonably necessary to administer reservations and travel arrangements.

Certain information may need to be provided to hotels, airlines, tour operators, insurance providers, governmental authorities, or other suppliers in order to facilitate the Traveler's participation.

Gospel Today Travel will endeavor to handle personal information responsibly and in accordance with applicable privacy requirements.

Travelers should not transmit highly sensitive personal information through unsecured communication channels unless specifically instructed to do so.

30. COMPLAINTS AND PROBLEM RESOLUTION

Travelers should report significant problems during the Trip as soon as reasonably possible to the Gospel Today Travel representative or appropriate supplier so that an opportunity exists to address the issue.

After the Trip, complaints should be submitted in writing and should include sufficient information to allow Gospel Today Travel to investigate the matter.

Gospel Today Travel will make reasonable efforts to address legitimate concerns in a professional and timely manner.

31. TRIP-SPECIFIC TERMS

Each Gospel Today Travel excursion may include supplemental terms addressing matters such as:

Trip price; deposit amount; installment schedule; final payment deadline; cancellation schedule; refund eligibility; insurance requirements; minimum participation; airfare; hotel accommodations; single supplements; optional excursions; group-leader qualifications; destination-specific requirements; and other Trip-specific matters.

The Traveler agrees to both these general Terms and any applicable Trip-specific written terms.

32. GOVERNING LAW AND DISPUTE RESOLUTION

This Agreement shall be governed by the laws of the state designated in Gospel Today Travel's Trip-specific registration documents or principal business records, without regard to conflict-of-law principles, except where federal law or another jurisdiction's law is controlling.

Before initiating formal legal proceedings, the parties are encouraged to attempt in good faith to resolve disputes through direct written communication and, where mutually agreeable, mediation.

Any mandatory dispute-resolution, arbitration, forum-selection, or waiver provision shall be effective only to the extent clearly disclosed and enforceable under applicable law.

33. SEVERABILITY

If any provision of these Terms is determined to be invalid, illegal, or unenforceable, the remaining provisions shall continue in effect to the fullest extent permitted by law.

34. NO WAIVER

Failure by Gospel Today Travel to enforce a provision of these Terms on one occasion does not constitute a waiver of its right to enforce that provision or another provision in the future.

35. ENTIRE AGREEMENT

These Terms, together with the Traveler's registration materials, Trip-specific terms, invoices, written payment schedule, and any other incorporated written agreements, constitute the agreement between Gospel Today Travel and the Traveler regarding participation in the applicable Trip.

No verbal statement or representation modifies these Terms unless confirmed in writing by an authorized representative of Gospel Today Travel.

TRAVELER ACKNOWLEDGMENT AND ACCEPTANCE

I acknowledge that I have carefully read and understand the Gospel Today Travel Terms and Conditions Agreement and the specific terms applicable to my selected Trip.

I understand that travel involves risks and that itineraries and travel arrangements may be affected by circumstances beyond the reasonable control of Gospel Today Travel.

I understand the payment and cancellation provisions applicable to my Trip.

I understand that I am responsible for obtaining appropriate passports, visas, identification, insurance, medical advice, and other documentation or protection required or desired for my travel.

By signing below, electronically accepting these Terms, registering for a Gospel Today Travel excursion, or submitting payment after being provided these Terms, I agree to be bound by them.
